The image shows a Windows search interface with a search bar at the bottom containing the text "turn on". The search results are displayed in a list format. At the top, under the heading "Best match", there is a result for "Turn Windows features on or off" with a "Control panel" link. Below this, under the heading "Web", there are several search results, each with a magnifying glass icon: "turn on windows defender windows 10", "turn on windows defender", "turn on bluetooth windows 10", "turn on safe search", "turn on cortana windows 10", "turn on the jets", "turn on touch screen windows 10", and "turn on fast startup windows 10". Under the heading "Settings", there are several results with gear icons: "Choose when to turn on the touch keyboard", "Turn rotation lock on or off", "Turn auto brightness on or off", "Turn daylight saving time on or off", "Turn SmartScreen Filter on or off for apps", "Turn off double-tap and drag on the touchpad", and "Turn off right clicks when you tap with two fingers on the touchpad". At the bottom of the search results, there are two tabs: "My stuff" and "Web". The Windows logo is visible in the bottom left corner of the interface.
